FOR TECHNOLOGY TUTORIAL AND

1 Pursuant to Local Rule 7 and by agreement, Defendant Microsoft Corporation and Plaintiff
2 Datanet LLC move the Court to extend the dates for the Technology Tutorial and Markman
3 hearing, which are currently scheduled for January 30, 2024 and February 13, 2024, respectively,
4 by one week, to a date available on the Court's calendar.

5 Counsel for Microsoft respectfully informs the Court of conflicts with the currently 6 scheduled dates for the Technology Tutorial and Markman hearing. Counsel for Microsoft in this
7 case is also counsel for Microsoft in a different and earlier-filed patent litigation in W.D.
8 Washington (Case No. 2:22-cv-00942) with one or more depositions scheduled for January 30, 9 2024, which will render certain counsel working on both matters unavailable on that date. In 10 addition, the Markman hearing for the earlier-filed case is scheduled for February 16, 2024—just 11 a few days after the current date for the Markman hearing in this matter.

12 Accordingly, the parties respectfully request that the dates for the Technology Tutorial and 13 Markman hearing be extended by one week, to a date available on the Court's calendar.
